GOT THERE IN TIME

A good story about Prof. Tucker, for-nerly of Rowdoin College, is told by head of his class at the early morning devotions.

One moring, however, he found his clothing gone and his door natied while the bell was ringing.

Finding a hatchet he soon split the door down, and at the lass stroke of the bell appeared, clothed it his shirt and a pair of overalls, burefooted, but with a smile of seconity on his expressive countenance. He took his customary place, and neither then nor afterwards were words of complaint heard from him.
